

PROpel Emerging Leaders Program

OVERVIEW

PROpel is a national competition created exclusively for emerging leaders, providing the opportunity for engagement in discussions and connections with influential representatives in the interior design community.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- IDC membership and proven leadership in the interior design profession
- Completed online application form

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

- Complete all personal information
- Submit two reference letters (one letter must come from a Full IDC Member)
- Answer all short-answer questions

SELECTION PROCESS

A jury comprised of professionals in the industry and design community, and IDC representatives will review all valid entries and select award recipients. Proposals will be judged based on the submissions meeting the noted selection criteria. Participants will be selected and notified in early summer and will be honoured this fall.

RECOGNITION

Each participant will be announced as part of a promotional series on a weekly basis with a short profile published across IDC's social media platforms, newsletters, and honoured at the IDC Awards Celebration this fall.