

Victoria Young
Designer Account Executive – Eastern Canada, Sherwin Williams

Victoria supports the residential interior designer and architectural market with colour and paint specifications, she also provides continuing education for designers and industry partners. She works with the Sherwin Williams Canadian design and marketing team.

Throughout her 16 years with Sherwin Williams, Victoria has been a guest speaker at various industry events to discuss forecasted trends, DIY tips and tricks, products and sheens, and so much more. She regularly attends and participates in design industry events such as Design Expos, Virtual Seminars and local Home and Garden shows.

Victoria has a diploma in Interior Decorating from Fanshawe College and is currently enrolled in online courses to improve her skillset and stay up to date on the newest design innovations and techniques.